

Red Brick Road Food Truck & Arts Festival ● March 14, 2020

What can be considered art?

Art is often considered the process or product of deliberately arranging elements in a way that appeals to the senses or emotions. It encompasses a diverse range of human activities, creations and ways of expression - Does this describe what you do?

Event Summary: This will be the sixth annual spring Food Truck & Arts Festival. We want to provide local artists with a day of exhibition and opportunity to engage the Enid community. . We call on all visual artists, artisans, and makers of creative works! From painters, photographers, potters to sculptors, woodworkers, metallurgists, & jewelers (to name a few). Do not hesitate to email us with inquiries before submitting your application.

General Information: This show will be outside on the Brix. Artists are responsible for their own canopies and wind/rain shields, and displays. Set up will be 7:30-10:30am on March 14. All vehicles must be out of the way by 9:30am; the earlier we can get vehicles unloaded and out of the way of the food trucks, the better. Food trucks will be arriving later in the morning around 9am.

Mission Statement: The mission of the Red Brick Road Food Truck & Art Festival is to celebrate the arts with presentations of diverse, high-quality works of arts & crafts. The essence of this festival is the enrichment and education of the audience, grounded in personal interaction between artist and audience.

Notification: Artists will be notified by email Feb 29, 2020.

Rules/regulations:

1. Artists must personally attend to their booth and must be present during the entire Festival. All artists must check in with Event Coordinator prior to setting up their booth.
